

Part-Time Adjunct Faculty: Dual Enrollment

Opening for AY20-21 an adjunct instructor to teach Dual Enrollment / Undergraduate English courses at a partner-site in Knoxville, TN.

Program Information

Bryan College Dual Enrollment allows students to earn college credits while still in high school. These courses use the same curriculum that is taught on our main campus in Dayton, Tennessee. Dual Enrollment is offered on-site at Bryan College, online, or at partner-sites through-out Tennessee.

Position Description

Bryan College Dual Enrollment seeks applications from persons who possess a master's degree or higher interested in part-time adjunct teaching position in Knoxville, TN. Qualified degreed candidates must possess 18 graduate hours in the English subject.

It is expected that part-time adjunct faculty will be qualified to teach courses while integrating a Christian worldview.

General Responsibilities

Teaching assignments are generally online for 15-week semesters. This specific opportunity would require one day per month onsite at potentially two partner-sites in the Knoxville area. Dates will be coordinated between the instructor and the individual partner-site. The onsite requirement provides additional support to students new to online course work as well as provide flexibility for all constituents. Onsite class sessions will typically run in 50-minute segments, with one session per course offering. A high priority is placed on individual student/teacher interaction and mentoring.

Qualifications

Undergraduate faculty should possess at minimum a master's degree from a regionally accredited college or university in the field of study with 18 graduate hours appropriate to the particular degree program.

Christian Commitment

Faculty teaching at Bryan College in any capacity is expected to be able to articulate a personal faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, able to give unqualified support to an evangelical Christian position, and a supporter of a local church by conviction and practice.
